

Dear Seahorses,

What a strange year we have had! I hope you all managed to keep well during the lockdown. I know it must have been really difficult and frustrating at times but from speaking to most of you and your parents I know that you have coped really well. I could tell you have been trying to maintain your learning by doing the Home Learning work every week and reading regularly.

I am really proud of all of you and how hard you worked while we were together and afterwards. You were making such great progress and becoming so much more confident. You were starting to ask more questions when you didn't understand something or wanted to know more. You were always keen to put your hands up to try and answer questions. I could see how you were taking responsibility for your learning and always trying to improve your work, meet your targets or try to master different things.

We always had lots of laughs and had a great time learning about our new topics. Our trip to Greenwich was wonderful although it was also very windy! Who remembers the Shakespeare workshop? That was lots of fun. I didn't how many amazing actors there were in the class! And then you wrote your own playscripts which were even funnier than the Shakespeare comedy we were reading.

I was always really impressed with the extra homework so many of you enjoyed doing. The way you worked together and supported each other was inspiring. Keep it up next year!

Make sure you take time to relax in the holidays and prepare yourself for the new academic year with your wonderful new teacher. Make sure you go outside, have lots of fun and help your family. Keep on reading every day and finish your Summer homework packs.

Maybe you can carry out on your own personal learning project on something we looked at together but you wanted to find out more about like the Tudors or Volcanoes & Earthquake for example. Please show me any completed projects!

Thanks for being a great class & good luck in Year 4!

PS There is a Turner & Townsend Competition for you to complete over the Summer Holidays!

The poster features a blue header with the National Literacy Trust logo on the left and the Turner & Townsend logo on the right. The main title 'Writing/Drawing Competition!' is centered in white. Below the title, a light blue rounded rectangle contains text and a list of questions. To the right of the text are two illustrations: a pizza shop and a park scene.

Writing/Drawing Competition!

We need your help! Turner & Townsend work on local projects so we'd like to hear about your area.

- Can you draw and tell us about a place that is special to you? It might be a park, a cafe, or a swimming pool: wherever you like to spend time.
- Can you still go during lockdown or are you looking forward to going back?

Share your ideas with us in our writing/drawing competition.
There will be book token prizes for the three best entries.
